During this Campaign Period, participants may enter a lucky draw contest to win gift vouchers by Emirates Holidays. The gift vouchers awarded will be valued at different amounts and will be given at random to participants of the lucky draw contest.

2. An existing StashAway user that has invested through StashAway prior to the campaign period must make a referral, using their personal in-app referral codes, to a person that successfully onboards and invests through StashAway within 30 calendar days (successful referral)

StashAway reserves the right to impose a floor rate, under its discretion, at any time, for a participant to be eligible to win a gift voucher.

All eligible participants that meet the above participation conditions will have an equal chance of winning. The winner will be chosen at random out of all StashAway users that are eligible participants in this lucky draw contest.
